RICHARD DRU WHITACRE,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JERRY BEAVER AND MILFORD THEATRE AND FILM, LLC,

Defendants.

No. 12-cv-2053

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Richard Dru Whitacre ("Whitacre"), by and through his attorneys, Ridley, Chuff, Kosierowski & Scanlon, P.C., complain of the Defendants, Jerry Beaver ("Beaver") and Milford Theatre & Film, LLC (the "Theatre") (collectively referred to as the "Defendants"), as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. The Plaintiff, Richard Dru Whitacre, is an adult individual with a residential address at 260 Main Street, No. 313, Little Falls, New Jersey 07424.
2. The Defendant, Jerry Beaver, is an adult individual with a residential address at 927 Twin Lakes Road, Shohola, Pennsylvania 18458.

3. The Defendant, Milford Theatre & Film, LLC, is a limited liability company formed under the laws of the state of Pennsylvania and maintains a principal place of business at 701 4th Street, Milford, Pennsylvania 18337.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. Jurisdiction is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332 (diversity of citizenship), as the controversy central to this action arises among and between citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00

5. Venue is proper in this court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(a) since a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims of Whitacre occurred in this district, and all parties are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district.

NATURE OF THE CASE

6. This action seeks money damages and equitable relief from this Court in connection with Beaver's unilateral actions to operate the Theatre contrary to the obligations of the Operating Agreement to the exclusion of Whitacre.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

7. On April 1, 2011, Whitacre and Beaver purchased real property and equipment known as the Milford Theatre and entered into an Operating Agreement (the "Agreement") in connection with the formation of the Milford Theatre & Film, LLC. A copy of the executed Operating Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

8. The Theatre was created for the following business purposes: "own, operate theaters for rental, exhibition of film, production of entertainment of cultural and artistic events." See Exhibit "A" at section A(5).

9. The Agreement provides that the limited liability company known as the Theatre shall be “managed exclusively by all of its members” and the members include the Whitacre and Beaver. Id. at section B(3).

10. Whitacre’s initial capital contribution was $51,992.40 and Beaver’s initial capital contribution is unknown as the Defendant has refused to show the books and records of the LLC, and because Beaver has unilaterally closed the LLC account.

11. Pursuant to the Agreement “each member shall vote on any matter submitted to the membership for approval by the managers of this LLC in proportion to the member’s capital interest in this LLC.” Id. at section B(5).

12. Upon possession of the Theatre, Beaver and Whitacre agreed to make basic repairs and annual improvements required for operating the Theatre. Subsequently, Whitacre left town for a previously planned ten (10) day business trip and during his absence Beaver undertook unilateral actions to control the Theatre to the exclusion of Whitacre.

13. Within thirty (30) days of the execution of the Agreement, Beaver undertook massive real property renovation projects at the Theatre without consulting with Whitacre and contrary to any agreement for such renovation project.

14. The renovation project unilaterally undertaken by Beaver without proper authority include(s) the following:

- complete demolition of working bathrooms to be improved for aesthetic reasons only;
- demolished and removed the working concession area as well as destroyed and or sold the concession equipment, including but not limited to popcorn machine, cooler, freezer, candy showcases, and entire gutting and rehab of the lobby/concession area;

- hiring of multiple contractors;
- demolition/removal of stage deck fascia;
- partially re-finished non-essential floor areas by hiring flooring contractor;
- removed a working electrical distribution panel and replaced same at great expense without utilizing an existing recently installed electrical panel;
- commissioned custom art tile to be manufactured;
- proceeded with multiple repairs and improvements that were aesthetic choices and not required to obtain a C of O or general operation of the Theatre.
- entered into agreements and paid above market value for various construction projects;
- hired employees without filing state, federal and local labor and tax law requirements.

15. The above referenced renovation project(s) were paid for by funds from the Theatre without approval by Whitacre and contrary to specific requests made by Whitacre to Beaver to cease work.

16. Without the consent and/or approval of Whitacre, Beaver entered into agreements with vendors in violation of the Agreement.

17. Beaver unilaterally sold, gave away or disposed of multiple antique business machines, including but not limited to an antique Coca-Cola cooler and Mid-Century coin-op cigarette machine and other vintage equipment while claiming it was being cleaned.

18. Based upon the above referenced unilateral actions undertaken by Beaver to the exclusion of Whitacre, Whitacre made numerous requests of Beaver to cease any and all actions on behalf of the Theatre without consultation or agreement by Whitacre.

19. Notwithstanding the above requests, Beaver continues to operate the Theatre independently and to the exclusion of Whitacre.

20. In fact, on one occasion, Beaver hailed down a passing Milford Borough Police Officer when the Whitacre arrived at the Theatre to discuss the actions/inactions of Beaver. Beaver subsequently convinced the Police Officer that Whitacre was trespassing. The Police Officer then threatened to arrest and incarcerate Whitacre unless he immediately left and remained off of the property.

21. Due to Beaver's egregious unilateral behavior, Whitacre attempted to withdraw from the limited liability company pursuant to the specific mandate contained within the Agreement and this effort was rebuffed by Beaver.

22. Beaver refuses to meet and confer with Whitacre in the manner required by the Agreement.

23. Beaver has exclusive possession and custody of all of the assets of the Theatre's books and records, to the exclusion of Whitacre and further refuses to provide back up accounting for the 2011 IRS and Pennsylvania tax filings preventing Whitacre from signing the returns.

24. Beaver continues to operate the Theatre exclusively and independently from the Whitacre in contravention of the Agreement.

25. Whitacre has no means of knowing or ascertaining the facts as to any moneys that have been earned or expended since April 2011.

26. Beaver has never rendered to Whitacre an accounting as to the earnings or expenditures of the Theatre so he may know the value of his interest in the limited liability company known as the Theatre.

27. As a result of Beaver's failure to provide a full accounting and payment to the Whitacre for his partnership interest in the Theatre, the Whitacre has incurred damages.

40. It would be inequitable and unconscionable for the Defendants to retain and not pay Whitacre the compensation and allocation of profits due to Whitacre as promised since the Defendants have been enriched by Whitacre's services and efforts.

41. The Defendants have failed and refused to compensate Whitacre for the services rendered and, as a result, Whitacre has sustained damages.

3. Failure to Make Contributions

If a member fails to make a required capital contribution within the time agreed for a member's contribution, the remaining members may, by unanimous vote, agree to reschedule the time for payment of the capital contribution by the late-paying member, setting any additional repayment terms, such as a late payment penalty, rate of interest to be applied to the unpaid balance, or other monetary amount to be paid by the delinquent member, as the remaining members decide. Alternatively, the remaining members may, by unanimous vote, agree to cancel the membership of the delinquent member, provided any prior partial payments of capital made by the delinquent member are refunded promptly by the LLC to the member after the decision is made to terminate the membership of the delinquent member.

6. Consent to Capital Contribution Withdrawals and Distributions

Members shall not be allowed to withdraw any part of their capital contributions or to receive distributions, whether in property or cash, except as otherwise allowed by this agreement and, in any case, only if such withdrawal is made with the written consent of all members.

7. Allocations of Profits and Losses

Except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Organization, Certificate of Formation or a similar organizational document, or this Operating Agreement, no member shall be given priority or preference with respect to other members in obtaining a return of capital contributions, distributions or allocations of the income, gains, losses, deductions, credits or other items of the LLC. Except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Organization, Certificate of Formation or a similar organizational document, or this Operating Agreement, the profits and losses of the LLC, and all items of its income, gain, loss, deduction and credit shall be allocated to members according to each member's capital interest in this LLC.

8. Allocation and Distribution of Cash to Members

Cash from LLC business operations, as well as cash from a sale or other disposition of LLC capital assets, may be allocated and distributed from time to time to members in accordance with each member's capital interest in the LLC, as may be decided by a unanimous vote of the members.

9. Allocation of Noncash Distributions

If proceeds consist of property other than cash, the members shall decide the value of the property and allocate such value among the members in accordance with each member's capital interest in the LLC. If such noncash proceeds are later reduced to cash, such cash may be distributed among the members according to the distribution cash allocations provisions in this agreement.

10. Allocation and Distribution of Liquidation Proceeds

Regardless of any other provision in this agreement, if there is a distribution in liquidation of this LLC, or when any member's interest is liquidated, all items of income and loss shall be allocated to the members' capital accounts, and all appropriate credits and deductions shall then be made to these capital accounts before any final distribution is made. A final distribution shall be made to members only to the extent of, and in proportion to, any positive balance in each member's capital account.

E. MEMBERSHIP WITHDRAWAL AND TRANSFER PROVISIONS

1. Withdrawal of Members

A member may withdraw from this LLC by giving written notice to all other members at least 30 days before the date the withdrawal is to be effective. In the event of such withdrawal, the LLC shall pay the departing member the fair value of his or her LLC interest, less any amounts owed by the member to the LLC. The departing and remaining members shall agree at the time of departure on the fair value of the departing member's interest and the schedule of payments to be made by the LLC to the departing member, who shall receive payment for his or her interest within a reasonable time after departure from the LLC. If the departing and remaining members cannot agree on the value of departing member's interest, they shall select an appraiser, who shall determine the current value of the departing member's interest. This appraised amount shall be fair value of the departing member's interest, and shall form the basis of the amount to be paid to the departing member.

2. Restrictions on the Transfer of Membership

Notwithstanding any other provision of this agreement, a member shall not transfer his or her membership in the LLC unless all of the nontransferring LLC members first agree in writing to approve the admission of the transferee into this LLC. Further, no member may encumber a part or all of his or her membership in the LLC by mortgage, pledge, granting of a security interest, lien or otherwise, unless the encumbrance has first been approved in writing by all other members of the LLC.

Notwithstanding the above provision, any member shall be allowed to assign an economic interest in his or her membership to another person without the approval of the other members. Such an assignment shall not include a transfer of the member's voting or management rights in this LLC, and the assignee shall not become a member of the LLC.

F. DISSOLUTION PROVISIONS

1. Events That Trigger Dissolution of the LLC

The following events shall trigger a dissolution of the LLC, except as provided:

a. Dissociation of a Member. The dissociation of a member, which means the death, incapacity, bankruptcy, retirement, resignation or expulsion of a member, or any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member shall cause a dissolution of this LLC only if and as provided below:

1. If a vote must be taken under state law to avoid dissolution. If, under provisions of state law, a vote of the remaining LLC members is required to continue the existence of this LLC after the dissociation of a member, the remaining members shall affirmatively vote to continue the existence of this LLC within the period, and by the number of votes of remaining members, that may be required under such provisions. If such a vote is required, but the period or number of votes requirement is not specified under such provisions, all remaining members must affirmatively vote to a continuation of this LLC within 90 days from the date of the date of dissociation of the member. If the affirmative vote of the remaining members is not obtained under this provision, this LLC shall dissolve under the appropriate procedures specified under state law.

2. If a vote is not required under state law to avoid dissolution. If provisions of state law do not require such a vote of remaining members to continue the existence and/or business of the LLC after the dissociation of a member, and/or allow the provisions of this Operating Agreement to take precedence over state law provisions relating to the continuance of the LLC following the dissociation of a member, then this LLC shall continue its existence and business following such dissociation of a member without the necessity of taking a vote of the remaining members. Notwithstanding the above, if the LLC is left with fewer members than required under state law for the operation of an LLC following the dissociation of a member of this LLC, the LLC shall elect or appoint a member in accordance with any provisions of state law regarding such election or appointment. If such election or appointment is not made within the time period specified under state law, or, if no time period is specified under state law and the LLC makes no election or appointment within 90 days following the date of dissociation of the member, this LLC shall dissolve under the appropriate procedures specified under state law.

b. Expiration of LLC Term. The expiration of the term of existence of the LLC if such term is specified in the Articles of Organization, Certificate of Formation or a similar organizational document, or this Operating Agreement, shall cause the dissolution of this LLC.

c. Written Agreement to Dissolve. The written agreement of all members to dissolve the LLC shall cause a dissolution of this LLC.

d. Entry of Decree. The entry of a decree of dissolution of the LLC under state law shall cause a dissolution of this LLC.

If the LLC is to dissolve according to any of the above provisions, the members and, if applicable, managers, shall wind up the affairs of the LLC, and take other actions appropriate to complete a dissolution of the LLC in accordance with applicable provisions of state law.

G. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Officers

The LLC may designate one or more officers, such as a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. Persons who fill these positions need not be members of the LLC. Such positions may be compensated or noncompensated according to the nature and extent of the services rendered for the LLC as a part of the duties of each office. Ministerial services only as a part of any officer position will normally not be compensated, such as the performance of officer duties specified in this agreement, but any officer may be reimbursed by the LLC for out-of-pocket expenses paid by the officer in carrying out the duties of his or her office.

2. Records

The LLC shall keep at its principal business address a copy of all proceedings of membership meetings, as well as books of account of the LLC's financial transactions. A list of the names and addresses of the current membership of the LLC also shall be maintained at this address, with notations on any transfers of members' interests to nonmembers or persons being admitted into membership in the LLC.

Copies of the LLC's Articles of Organization, Certificate of Formation or a similar organizational document, a signed copy of this Operating Agreement, and the LLC's tax returns for the preceding three tax years shall be kept at the principal business address of the LLC. A statement also shall be kept at this address containing any of the following information that is applicable to this LLC:

- the amount of cash or a description and value of property contributed or agreed to be contributed as capital to the LLC by each member;
- a schedule showing when any additional capital contributions are to be made by members to this LLC;
- a statement or schedule, if appropriate, showing the rights of members to receive distributions representing a return of part or all of members' capital contributions; and
- a description of events, or the date, when the legal existence of the LLC will terminate under provisions in the LLC's Articles of Organization, Certificate of Formation or a similar organizational document, or this Operating Agreement.

If one or more of the above items is included or listed in this Operating Agreement, it will be sufficient to keep a copy of this agreement at the principal business address of the LLC without having to prepare and keep a separate record of such item or items at this address.
